

MATA PELANDUK

Scientific Name	: Ardisia stylosa Miq.( A.colorata Roxb.)
Common Name	: Mata pelanduk
Names Pronounced by Malays	: Mata pelanduk
Names Pronounced by Indian	: Rempenai
Names Pronounced by Siamese	: Kheriang
Family :	Myrsinaceae

Morphological Description

Shrubs, without plume. Leaf elongated. Inflorescence on the tips of branches. Ripen fruits are round, black, and have a thickness of 5 mm.

Ecological Distribution

Lowland and hill forest

Status in Malaysia

Wide probability distribution.

Usage

- Root: for postpartum mother, treats cough and diarrhea
- Leaves: treat diarrhea
- Leaves, bark, and roots: used to treat ulcers, rheumatism, paralysis, and lumbago.
- Skin: for fever and diarrhea treatment

Method

Root extract is consumed.

The leaf decoction is consumed.

The roots, bark, and leaves are turned into ointment. Bark decoction is consumed orally.

Usable parts

Leaves, bark & roots

